Quality of teaching and learning; outcomes for children
Activities and improvements during the year 2022/23	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Book scrutiny showed that children are completing a range of different activities linked to the lesson objective. The lessons link to the medium-term plan and they show progression through the years. • Pupil voice interviews demonstrated that pupils enjoy PSHE lessons and believe them to be important. Pupils can recall key knowledge. • Staff questionnaire gave teachers a chance to voice any concerns. The majority of teachers are confident teaching PSHE and have suitable resources for their lessons. • Attendance at Trust Subject Development Group meetings • Delivered staff meeting to provide subject update to teachers. • Ensured that school took part in the Odd Socks Day to support Anti-Bullying week.
What impact have these activities and improvements had on your subject curriculum?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Evidence shows that PSHE education has a positive impact in a number of areas, including emotional wellbeing, physical health and academic attainment. • The activities carried out have ensured that PSHE is being taught in regular discrete lessons, following the medium term plan, ensuring that all children benefit from a wide-ranging, relevant education, based on the statutory requirements.

Judgement:
Outstanding	Good	Requires Improvement

On the basis of this information, what are your key priorities for development? (up to 3)
1. Alignment of PSHE medium term plans with Twinkl and other resources.
2. Teaching to show links between PSHE topics and British Values – staff to be aware of where these links exist.
